WE'VE GOT THAT SPIRIT!

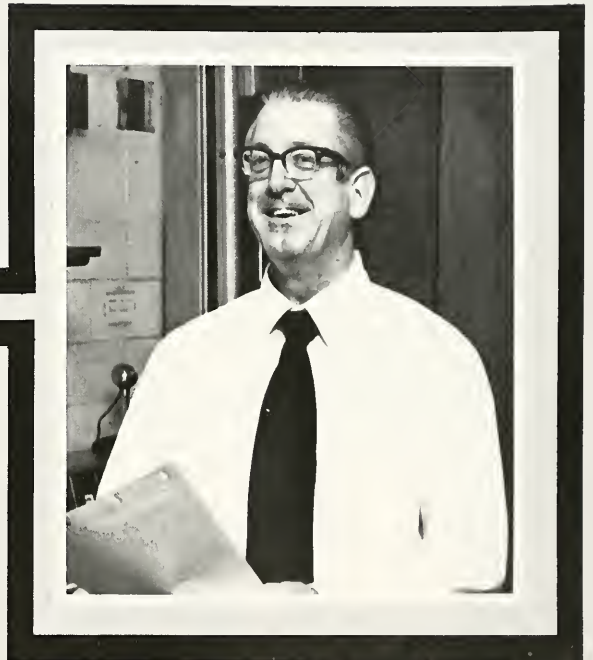

... *Mrs.
Debbie
Groff*

We owe you so much, Mrs. Groff—for the past five years you have made our high school days somehow seem that much more special for us. Remember your first year at LHS? It was ours, too, if you will recall. For five years you have given us more love, understanding and confidence than we probably deserved; but you managed to pull us through. To reward you for all those times, we, the class of 1983, dedicate this year's BULLDOG to you, Mrs. Debbie Groff. We can only hope that you will mean as much to your future students as you have meant, and always will mean to us.

With sincere thanks,
1983 Senior Class

Faculty

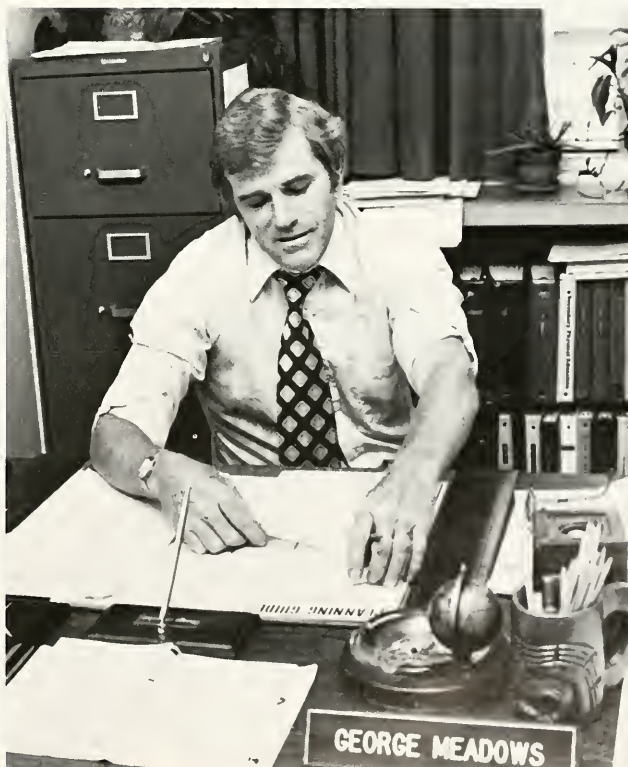

Administration and Secretaries

The administrative staff at LHS works hard to keep the school running smoothly. The principal, Mr. O'Rourke, is responsible for overseeing all school-time and extra-curricular activities. Mr. Meadows coordinates student schedules and assists Mr. O'Rourke. Mr. Clements, the disciplinarian, makes sure that order is maintained in every classroom and in the halls. The newest addition to the administrative staff is Ms. Sue Hicks who does an excellent job in working with student attendance and tardiness.

A good secretarial staff is essential to the operation of LHS. In addition to performing her secretarial duties and aiding Mr. O'Rourke, Mrs. Jean Wiggins conducts the business of running the main office. The bookkeeper, Mrs. Quattlebaum, keeps all school finances in order; and the registrar, Mrs. Gibson, enrolls new students and supervises the quarterly scheduling process.

Guidance

The counselors have led us through another year, helping us to prepare for our future. Providing a guiding hand is sometimes a difficult job; but because they are concerned and devoted, they fulfill the needs of the students and do their jobs well. As head of the department, Mr. Malcolm Brown organizes this important part of the school's administration. Mrs. Vivian Wallace and Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson co-sponsored the Junior class this year in addition to performing their counseling duties.

With a wide variety of books, magazines, and visual aids, our own LHS media center is the main source of current news and information. Catering to the needs of the school, the media center provides the students with knowledge on nearly every imaginable subject. This year, a welcomed addition to our media staff is media specialist, Ms. Cathy Damron.

Guidance

The Vocational Department at LHS does an excellent job of preparing students for the future by offering on the job training programs such as DCT, CVAE, PECE, and DOT. These programs give students valuable work experience in the vocational area.

The Special Education Department, under the leadership of Mr. Dan Clay, provides guidance for those who perform at a slower pace. The Impact program, directed by Mrs. Georgia Geis, is designed for the student who needs the challenge of working at a more advanced pace.

The Business Department at Lithonia offers courses such as typing, shorthand, accounting and data processing that prepare students who seek a business career. The business education students receive at LHS serves as a foundation for continued work experience after graduation.

Courses in basic grammar, composition, and speech are offered as well as courses in American literature, short story, drama, and English literature. The English Lab is a special program which aids eighth, ninth, and tenth grade students who need help in language arts skills. The Reading Lab gives students a chance to develop comprehension skills, increase reading rate, and build vocabulary. The skills learned in the lab assist students in preparation for the SAT and the PSAT. Spanish, French, German, and Latin are among the foreign languages offered at LHS. In addition to working in the textbook, students use films, tape recordings, and food days to better acquaint themselves with foreign culture.

Through these programs, each student was given the chance to get more involved in the governing of our country.

The Science Department at LHS offers a wide variety of courses ranging from biology and earth science to chemistry and physics. To improve their knowledge of scientific observation, the students perform lab experiments and make periodic visits to Fernbank Science Center. P.E. and Special Services

Designed to encourage students to learn and practice proper care of their bodies, the Physical Education program at LHS includes two years of physical education and health. While taking physical education, students participate in a variety of sports from basketball and football to soccer and tennis. In health classes students learn to practice proper care of their bodies.

The Special Services workers perform many tasks essential to the operation of LHS. Mrs. Hamby checks students in and out in the attendance office while Mr. Fowler keeps the school grounds safe. Mrs. Haynes is in charge of the Alternative Instruction program. The cafeteria staff works hard to prepare nutritious meals and the custodial staff keeps our school clean and neat.

The purpose of the yearbook staff is to produce the Bulldog, LHS's traditional account of each school year. With new sponsor, Mrs. Debbie Leach, and editor, Lisa Plunkett, as directors, the staff worked hard to produce this year's book. Scheduling pictures, drawing layouts, and writing copy are just a few of the many jobs staff members must complete before the final drafts are sent to the publisher. Haunted by meeting deadlines and correcting proofs, the members anxiously await their first look at the finished product. When the yearbooks arrive at the end of the year, each member feels a sense of accomplishment and is proud of the contribution he or she has made to this important memory book.

Student Council

From decorating the cafeteria for dances to collecting money for charity, the members of Student Council worked diligently to have successful year. The Council's largest project, Homecoming, turned out to be unforgettable. Also, the club sponsored a Beach Dance which was a terrific success. Dedicated members spent a cold day in the rain collecting money for the Empty Stocking Fund. Mr. Clifford Tyree and Mrs. Sue Henderson directed the club by providing helpful suggestions and guidance throughout the year.

Kappa

Kappa is an organization devoted to service in the school and the community. Every member participates in at least one of the many service projects. This year, Kappa developed a successful program in which members who had a study hall could go to Stoneview Elementary School and read to the children there. Also, the club traveled to the Elkmore Orphanage in Conyers where they played volleyball and had a good time with some very nice people. Ms. Sharon Dulworth, the sponsor, aided the club with her suggestions and leadership. All in all, the Lithonia Kappa Club had an outstanding year.

Throughout the year, the Lithonia High Mathematics teams competed in three Dekalb County Tournaments. One tournament is held each quarter with a championship tournament near the end of spring quarter. Both teams have had a successful year. The Varsity team placed third in the Dekalb South Region and the B-Team received a trophy for placing 1st in their region. One of the highlights of the year was participating in the Woodward and Parkview Invitational Tournaments.

The LHS Social Studies team is a very successful academic group. The team travels to various Dekalb County high schools in order to compete in tournaments. Team members score points by being asked questions in the categories of government, U.S. history, world geography, and current events. The team who has accumulated the highest number of points wins the tournament. As in previous years, this year's team is expected to participate in the county championship playoffs.

Varsity Cheerleaders

This year's Varsity Cheerleaders showed their spirit and support through both the football and basketball seasons. The girls cheered at all of the games and pep rallies. They also decorated the halls each week and painted spectacular game signs. Under the leadership of co-captains Debbie Polley and Lori Wilkerson, the girls created a lively atmosphere wherever they went. Participating in the Eastern Cheerleading Clinic in the early fall, these eighteen hard-working girls received 1st runner-up for their outstanding abilities.

The Drill Team provided excellent entertainment at all pep rallies and varsity football games. Composed of 42 girls, the squad also received a superior rating and 3rd place award at the Atlanta All Star Marching Festival. Jazz Ensemble and Chorus

The Chorus and Jazz Ensemble enlightened many programs with their vocal and musical talents. The chorus, under the direction of Mike Coulter, sang at the Bruce Street Gym for the elderly citizens. They also organized a Christmas concert and presented it for the P.T.A. and the students. The Jazz Ensemble, directed by Conrad Cheney, performed during Black History Week in February. The two groups collaborated their talents to present the annual Spring concert which everyone enjoyed.

Festivities

Graduation 1982

On June 10th, 1982, more than 200 seniors graduated from Lithonia High School. Mr. Thomas O'Rourke, principal, welcomed all present then Yvette Parks delivered the invocation. Preston Bennett and Dona Quattlebaum, introduced by Janet Entrekin, presented the evening speeches. Backed by the LHS Band, David Hinton gave his inspiring rendition of Barry Manilow's "We Made it Through the Rain". Mr. O'Rourke, Mr. Clements, and Mr. Meadows then awarded the overjoyed graduates with their long awaited diplomas. The recessional began as they exited— the proud, the few, the Class of '82.

Junior-Senior Week 1982

One of the highlights near the end of the school year is Junior-Senior Week. During this week the two class rivals compete in activities such as basketball, softball, volleyball, and of course, tug-of-war. At the assembly held on Friday, the competition culminates as the juniors and seniors vie for victory before the entire student body. Events such as the egg race, tricycle race, beachball race, and the male beauty contest are usually the deciding factors of the winning class. The outcome of the 1982 Junior-Senior Week resulted in a tie after much hard work and lots of fun.

For the 1982 Spring Musical, the Drama Club and Senior Class of 1982 presented two performances of Rogers and Hammerstein's THE KING AND I. The cast of more than thirty members was directed by Mr. Fred Harrod with assistance from Ms. Elise Stanton. Headlining the show were Tim Scruggs as the King, Robyn Megginson as Anna, Kristy Moynes as Tuptim, and Mark Cannon as both Lun Tha and Sir Edward Ramsey. The natural talent of the students and the long hours of tedious practice were manifested by the quality show they presented. All of those who participated need to be commended for a job well done.

Spring Musical 1982

An important part of student social life at Lithonia is attending the many dances held throughout the year. One of the most extravagant dances was the 1982 Junior-Senior Prom. Hosted by the Junior Class, the prom took place at the Northlake Hilton, where entertainment was provided by Danny Miller & the Chevelles. Everyone who attended the dance realized the appropriateness of the theme, "The Best of Times". Another important dance of 1982 was the annual Homecoming Dance. After the stunning victory over Gordon, everyone celebrated to the sounds of the Stone Mountain Band. At the Beach Party Dance, everyone rocked to the music presented by "J.T. Funk". The students also enjoyed the traditional Black and Gold Dance. These dances provided opportunities for students to socialize with their peers and demonstrate their love for music.

Pep Rallies

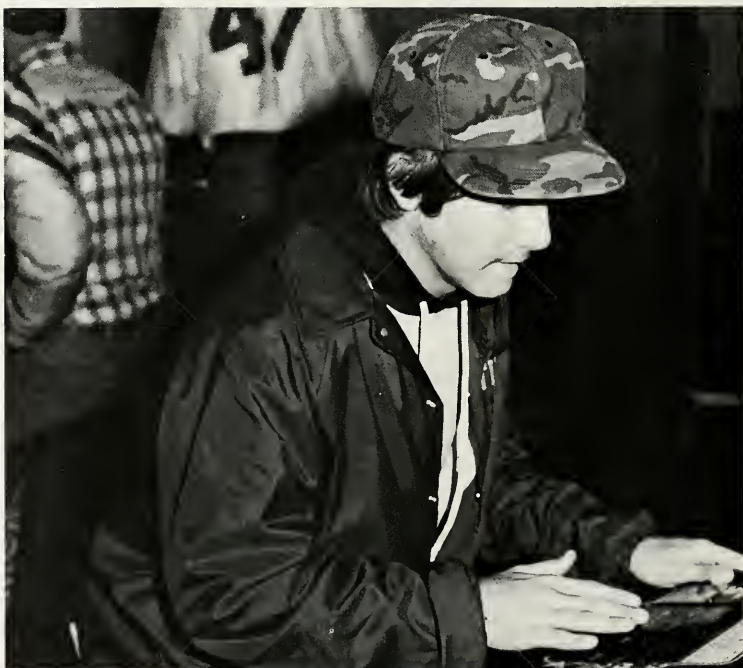

To some people at Lithonia pep rallies meant only that their classes were shorter. But to many, pep rallies meant excitement, fun, and wild celebrations. As students entered the gym, laughing and talking with friends, the band performed their repertoire while the majorettes, flag corps, and drill team presented many of their stunning routines. Urging the crowd to their feet and filling them with enthusiasm, the cheerleaders directed the cheers with chants and difficult stunts. The students looked forward to pep rallies where they could have a good time and inspire the Bulldogs with the hope of the upcoming victory. This year's pep rally highlights included a Pretty Legs Contest with Matt Battaglia as the winner, a faculty cheer, and a special delivery singing telegram for Coach Jones.

During the fall, while the football team fights its battles, the fans in the stands cheer them on. Battling cold and rain, these dedicated fans suffer many discomforts just to see our awesome Bulldogs play. This devoted group of students and parents is always there to comfort in time of defeat and to yell in times of victory.

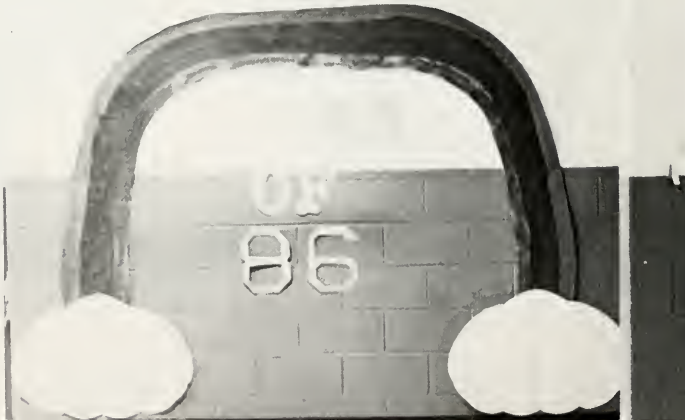

After these exhilarating games, many supporters flock to such popular places as Brick House Pizza and the Space Station Beta Arcade for post-game activities. These people seem to enjoy each other's company, as they can frequently be seen laughing, talking and eating pizza. Others enjoy the challenge that a video game has to offer. Whatever the choice, whoever the person, there is always a good time to be had in Lithonia.

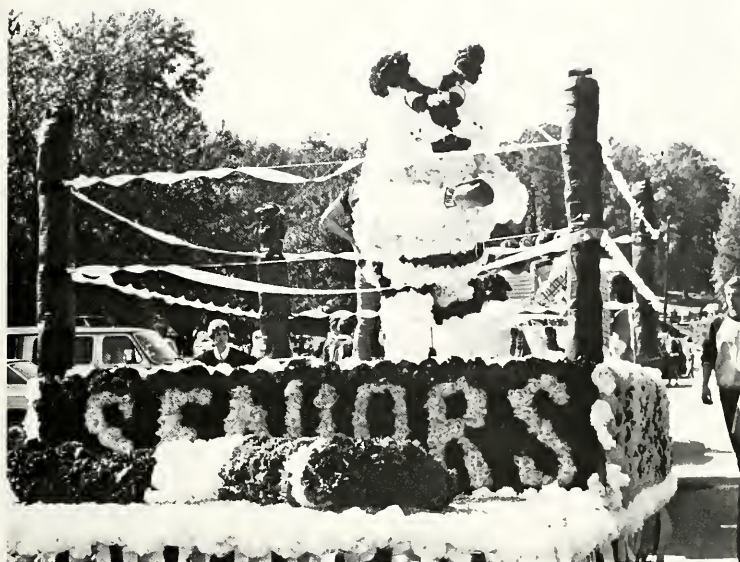

Fall Festivities

Homecoming Festivities

Lithonia's Homecoming Week was filled with fun-packed activities for the participation of both students and faculty. Various styles of clothing could be seen around the school, as people were suitably attired for Hat and Jersey Day, Punk and Prep Day, Country and Western Day, Halloween Day, and finally, Black and Gold Day.

Competitions during the week included the hall and float decorating contests judged by faculty members and members of Positive Action Lithonia respectively. First place for hall decorations was awarded to the junior class. The ninth grade float received first place honors, followed by the seniors in second place. These floats were displayed in Friday's annual Homecoming Parade which was led by Grand Marshall Max Cleland.

Topping off this thrilling week was the announcement of the 1982 Homecoming Queen, Miss Julie Ward. The new queen and her court were featured at the dance which concluded the Homecoming festivities.

Homecoming Court

Fourteen girls represented Lithonia High School as the 1982 Homecoming Court. Representatives included: 8th grade—Dusty Hill, Claudia Sibert; 9th grade—Casady Louwinski, Paula Williams; 10th grade—Belinda Garrison, Torie Norris; 11th grade—Kim Hamby, Stephanie Jones; 12th grade—Terri Abbott, Renee Ingersoll, Sissy Richardson; Football Representatives—Cindy Poole, Cynthia Thomas, Julie Ward. The 1982 Homecoming Queen was Julie Ward. Runners up were Cindy Poole, Sissy Richardson, and Cynthia Thomas.

Queen of Court

Julie Ward

Representing the football team, Julie Ward was selected as the 1982 Homecoming Queen for Lithonia High. The 1981 queen, Leslie Kimmons, crowned the ecstatic new queen during half time as the crowd responded with approval. Mr. Bob Ward, Julie's father, was her escort for the evening. Julie has been involved in many extracurricular activities such as cheerleading, Kappa and Beta Clubs, National Honor Society, and soccer, making her an excellent choice for this title.

Graduating Class of 1983

We came to L.H.S. a mere five years ago, and unbelievable as it may seem, our days grow shorter as we near graduation. Donned in our gowns of black and gold, we will descend the aisle together—as the Class of 1983. Looking back, we do not remember days, we remember moments. But, in the end, the outcome is our own personal memory of the whisper of the time that we spent together—the shining moments and the disheartening defeats. But through it all, we have become one with each other—a family bound together by a spirit. And this spirit will live in our hearts always for we ARE the class of '83.

Mr. & Miss LHS

The Senior Class of 1983 chose Cindy Poole to represent Lithonia as Miss LHS. She has been involved in activities such as National Honor Society, Beta and Kappa Clubs, Student Council, and Chorus. She held the office of senior class treasurer and served as secretary and 2nd lieutenant for drill team. As a football representative, Cindy was 1st runner up on this year's Homecoming Court.

David Dodson, because of his superior leadership ability and his outstanding character, was chosen Mr. LHS of 1983. In his years at Lithonia, David has been actively involved in Student Council and the Beta Club. Also, he has presided as president of his class in both his junior and senior years. David has participated as an athlete on both the cross country and track teams.

'83—In a Class by Itself

We have made it at last—we, the Class of 1983. There is so much to show for our progress—awards, honors, grades.

We are a proud and talented class. Among us are musicians, athletes, and champions, but each of us shares so many memories with the other members of our class. Remember . . . when you got caught skipping . . . working for the weekend . . . four-wheeling . . . all those crazy float meetings . . . the disappointment with our 2nd place finish in the float competition (we should have won) . . . meeting at the arcade before a big game . . . celebrating victories at Brick House . . . wearing your class ring for the first time . . .

sweating it out under the lights for your senior picture . . . knowing that you had finally arrived as a Senior during the year's first pep rally . . . ordering graduation invitations . . . caps and gowns . . . "Loser" . . . Joey's jokes . . . the Van Halen concert . . . Pole Cat . . . Dead in There! . . . "Little Debbie" . . . last, but not least, counting down to June 9 . . . and June 11 (Daytona, here we come!) . . .

The members of the Junior Class face many important decisions and opportunities during the year. Taking the PSAT, ordering class rings, paying class dues, thinking about college and attending the Junior-Senior Prom are all a part of being a Junior. Certainly, the Junior year is exciting and very memorable to the Class of 1984.

The Spirit moves on . .

... uniting friends ...

... enhancing our days.

... abiding with us always.

With the final publishing deadline pressing closer still, the realization of the BULLDOG's completion is upon me. Once again, it is time for yet another editor to write his closing letter. However, this time the responsibility has become one of my own—a difficult one, I must add. This letter serves as not only the closing to the yearbook but also to this year and my high school career. Of my five years at LHS, one of my fondest memories lies with my work on the Annual Staff. Since tenth grade, I poured so much of my life into the betterment of each year's book. Actually, the book became my first love—not only for the journalism involved but also for the many rewards. Endless hours of searching for just “the right touch” pay off once the book arrives and is presented to the student body. Despite the multitude of problems I encountered, I can honestly say that I would do it all over again.

In my never-ending quest to produce the “best book yet,” I have not been alone; there were many dedicated people who helped along the way. First, I must bid a sincere thank you to our principal, Mr. O'Rourke, who allowed the staff to make many changes in the design and preparation of the book. His interest and cooperation is valued immensely. You certainly helped the year to run smoothly—thank you, sir. Furthermore, his personal selection of our advisor, Mrs. Leach, has proven to be an exceptional one. She pushed and prodded us with her “ad speeches,” checked and re-checked copy, and even managed to type when she was not required to. Through all of this, she became one of us; and the staff will agree that not only did she serve as advisor, but also as a friend. You're irreplaceable, Mrs. Leach. We love you. To my assistant editor, Brenda Frasad, I express my appreciation for a job well done. She, too, spent three, sometimes extremely trying, years on the staff; and for three years, she remained a devoted assistant. You will never know how much you lessened my worries, Brenda—thanks so much. For handling specific areas of the yearbook coverage, a special word of thanks goes to my section editors: Andra, Rhonda, Dee Dee, Sharon, Valerie, Amy, and Kelly. Each of you made a major contribution to the book, and you deserve much praise. And to the staff—I openly acknowledge the numerous contributions that each individual made towards the completion of the book—you have all been assets to our staff.

There remains one other factor adding to the importance of a yearbook—the students. For without the people, Lithonia would have no life, no spirit. Truly, the Spirit of Lithonia does exist, whether in that special friend's smile or in the guiding hand of a teacher. This is what makes a yearbook special . . . being able to recall moments that one chooses never to forget—the moments that made that year special . . . I sincerely hope that this book will fulfill that to the utmost—making 1982-83 a standout year for many; for, indeed, it has been a standout year.

With thanks,

Lisa Plunkett
